

The Raven's Sneaky Brunch

“Hey you! This is the story about how I got my lunch. Watch and see as I plan to get my lunch in a tricky, sneaky way!”

Raven was looking down at eagle, who was fishing in the Sandowne River. Raven was hanging out in his tree while eagle worked hard to catch his fish.

Eagle was fishing by the river, she had already caught 5 fish. She was feeling proud of her work.

She didn't notice that Raven was looking down at her, and that he was planning to eat her fish for lunch.

Raven was thinking of a plan. "I should tell Eagle that one of her babies fell out of her nest" he said to himself.

Raven was thinking it through. He was very hungry so he decided to go through with it.

“Eagle, I saw your baby on the ground under your tree”, said Raven. “I don’t believe you!” said Eagle. “No, he really did” said Raven.

Eagle decided she couldn't take the chance, and she flew back to her tree to check on her baby.

As soon as Eagle was gone, Raven took a salmon in his mouth and flew as fast as he could back to his home.

Raven was delighted that he tricked Eagle and that he got his lunch without hard work.

Eagle was not happy that her salmon were stolen and that Raven had lied to her. Eagle went to Raven's tree house and said to him "Why did you trick me? It was not kind. I can't believe you when you tell me anything now". Raven was sad.

Raven was sorry for the way he lied to Eagle. "Eagle, I will catch you some fish to make up for the way I treated you. I'm sorry.". "I appreciate it. Please work hard to tell the truth always". Said Eagle.
